

The Race of Love or Death!

Plot out the race incidents as they happen... draw where Melanion throws each of the apples and where Atalanta has to search, then show them at the end of the race in the heart. In between each incident you can draw the position of Atalanta and Melanion during the race. This plan can then be used to structure your own race commentary... remember to comment on the response of the crowd at each of the incidents!

