

Traditional Music forum

Learn Traditional Music Autumn 2016 to Spring 2017

Aberdeen: Scottish Culture and Traditions classes start back 19 September. Banjo/Mandolin, Bodhran, Clarsach, Fiddle, Song and much more.

Argyll: Lochgoilhead Fiddle Workshop commences Junior Fiddle classes on Wednesday 7th September. There will also be a Come Try Event for anyone over 16 on Wednesday 31st August - both at Strachur Memorial Hall.

Glasgow: Glasgow Fiddle workshop – classes in accordion, banjo, bodhran, ceilidh band, cello, fiddle, guitar, harmonica, mandolin, mixed instrument, small pipes, song, ukulele, whistle

Glasgow: National Piping Centre A wide range of classes being run for complete beginners onward. Classes run from 17 September and take place at evenings and weekends. Lessons are given in small groups where the students will be of similar standard. You will be taught by one of our expert teachers using The National Piping Centre's award winning instructional system.

Dundee: Friends of Wighton host a range of classes. Every Tuesday afternoon at 2pm there are sessions on Scots song with Sheena Wellington which is suitable for beginners. On Saturdays there is often Gaelic Song classes with Wilma Kennedy at 10am. Friends Wighton Events

Edinburgh: Scots Music Group classes are open for registration and early bird discount available now. Classes in accordion, clarach, fiddle, guitar, mixed instruments, scottish stepdance, scottish smallpipes, song, ukulele & whistle.

Edinburgh: Sangstream is a Scots folk choir based in Edinburgh. Most of the songs they sing come from the Scots tradition as well as contemporary Scots songs, and some traditional songs from around the world. Their Musical Director is Corrina Hewat, well-known clarsach and song tutor and performer. New members welcome: About Sangstream

Horsecross Voices, Perth is a fun and informative singing group for adults, taking place in Perth Concert Hall from September to November. Sessions are varied and feature a range of styles and leaders.

Horsecross Voices Info

Portobello, Edinburgh: Fun Fiddle classes for adults and children start back in September

Inverness: Highlife Highland will be running classes in Fiddle, Whistle & Low Whistle, Guitar, Mandolin & Tenor Banjo, Accordion, Chanter and Clarsach. To register your interest email

Melrose: Merlin Academy of Traditional Music are running ukulele classes on a Tuesday evening, a songwriting group on a Wednesday evening, and cello on a Thursday evening.

Traditional Music forum

Nigel Gatherer: runs a raft of classes in mandolin, whistle, ukulele and mixed instrument sessions. Various venues across central Scotland including Uddingston, Glasgow and Edinburgh

<http://www.nigelgatherer.com/teaching.html>

Ross-shire: Feis Rois have launched their extensive range of weekly classes for children and weekly classes for adults(both starting week of 22 August). Classes take place across Ross-shire and cater for a wide range of instruments and levels of playing.

Stirling: Tolbooth Stirling, Autumn classes for adults and children start in September. Check out website for more information

Stirling: Riverside Music Project run Sunday music sessions for all ages at Stirling Boat Club. All welcome with more able players helping beginners. Learn to play tunes in a supportive and welcoming setting.

Tolbooth Singers, Stirling is a friendly and informal singing group led by Susy Kelly and is open to all. No need to have sung before. Tolbooth Singers